

January 2015 Getting to Know You
MASTER ANSWER SHEET

Jerri Glover	My favorite movies are As Good As It Gets and Fargo .
Julia Carol	I recently co-authored an Empowerment book.
Joey Jordan	I was once on the board of directors of the Foothills Fiber Guild.
Sharon O'Hara	I sold bras and girdles to put myself through college.
Mona Matthias	In high school at age 17, I did experiments in radiation at the UC Davis Cobalt 60 lab for my final project.
Phyllis Orzalli	I was a wearable art garment designer, and one year one of my garments was in fashion shows in Europe and Japan.
Pam Carcido	I once scuba dived down to 100 feet, and saw octopus, sharks and turtles
Lindy Horwitz	I ushered at the Black Hills Rodeo (Rapid City, South Dakota) every summer during high school.
Shirley Zeff	I can fly an airplane.
Rosemary Metrailer	I love chickens and have kept them as pets ever since growing up on the farm in Indiana
Judith McCarrick	I was a First-Place yo-yo champion and won a badge for my jacket when I was 10 years old
Dee Eldridge	I was born in Hiawatha, Utah. My father, the son of Italian immigrants, was killed in a coal mine explosion when I was 1 year old.
Susan Rogers	I once organized and marched in a Briefcase Drill Team that made people scream with laughter at the Santa Barbara Summer Solstice Parade.
Lynn Wenzel	I traveled and lived all over Europe until I was ten. Then I spent the rest of my growing up years in a rural place, rode horses every day and enjoyed dirt clod fights with my brother and our friends.

Maryann Della Maggiora	I spent a few years as a spinning instructor.
Colleen Morris	I've been married 41 years, am an adoptive mother and have 5 grandchildren.
Lorell Muldoon	I'm the daughter and mother of Eagle Scouts.
Gail Parle	I once rode an elephant.
Marley Mueller	I have a green card & I'm a German citizen with a Canadian passport.
Charlotte Cammon	I collect recipes using lemons, and have almost 100 recipes.
Elaine Sierra	I was individually admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court, by Chief Justice Warren Burger.
Patricia Wolf	I once stowed away on a fishing trawler going out into the North Sea.
Eileen Jorgensen	I love to belly dance and plan to be the oldest grandmother belly dancing in America!
Cheryl Rubin	I met my husband in the hot tub of the gym we belonged to in the Washington DC suburb of McLean, Virginia.
Shanti Emerson	I've lived in five states from east to west coasts....Virginia, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and California (both Norcal and SoCal)
Karin Kleinhans	I had an invitation to the Playboy Mansion and declined.
Judy Nichols	I broke horses until I was 50 years old.
Emma Santa	I've been bungee jumping.
Mary Ross	The summer after graduating from high school, I worked in a factory operating a machine that fused adhesive backing on large rolls of brightly colored artificial fur to be later affixed to laundry hampers and other bathroom accessories.

Sandra Rockman	I started smoking when I was 14. I lived to smoke when I was doing it. Quit when I was 21, 23, 25 and again, finally for good at 28.
Geri Bergen	I worked in Reno as a Twenty-One (Blackjack) dealer for 2-1/2 years, while attending college.
Fran Cole	I grew up in a small town that billed itself as "The Circus Capital of the World." Elephants, chimpanzees, lions and other circus animals were kept there in the winter when the circus wasn't moving around the country on railroad trains. I knew Emmett Kelly (the hobo clown), Hugo Zacchini (the human cannonball) and several lion tamers.
Nancy Weber	When I was about 9 and didn't know how to swim, I floated with my cousins down a river on a railroad tie -- this was sport.
Fran Jorgensen	I worked on the very first DNA synthesizer.